

How to Make Friends and Win Souls

Become an effective communicator and share the gospel with anyone

“As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.”
- Proverbs 27:17, New Living Translation

“The godly give good advice to their friends; the wicked lead them astray.”
- Proverbs 12:26, New Living Translation

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."
- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Target Audience

General; can be tailored to all age groups

Workshop Format

3-hour interactive presentation

About the Workshop

Being a Christian is exciting – we have Christ in us, as well as the promise of eternal life. We are also called to be the light and salt of this world. But have you ever felt uncomfortable sharing the gospel with your friends? This interactive session will equip you to become a better friend by practising timeless principles. As a result, you'll find yourself more effective in sharing the Gospel with your peers.

Workshop Outline

1. Understand the four basic personality patterns and how they effect relationships.
2. Practice the 3-C principle when handling people.
3. Embrace the L-I-O-N principle to encourage people to like you.
4. Tailor your 4-step Gospel message to win over souls.

About Joyce

Joyce Li is a gifted speaker and workshop facilitator with over 25 years of business, consulting, counselling and teaching experience. Fluent in both English and Cantonese, she specializes in delivering interactive workshops that inspire and equip her audiences to become the best they can be. No matter your life journey, Joyce has what it takes to promote your potential to the next level.

Phone: 416-568-3230 * Email: joyce@fullnessoflife.com * Website: www.fullnessoflife.com